2. GFG, including its membership and associates, constituted an "Enterprise," as defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(4), that is, a group of individuals associated in fact, although not a legal entity. The Enterprise constitutes an ongoing organization whose members functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of the Enterprise. At all times relevant to this Indictment, the Enterprise has engaged in, and its activities affected, interstate and foreign commerce.

THE RACKETEERING ENTERPRISE

3. From at least in or about the year 2000, up to and including the date of the filing of this Indictment, in the Northern District of Georgia, and elsewhere, JEFFREY ALAN BOURASSA, a/k/a "J.B.," "Babyface," and "Kid," DAVID GENE POWELL, a/k/a "Davo," CHERI LEA RAU, TOBY JAMES OGLETREE, VICTOR MANUEL DEJESUS, a/k/a "VG Vic," RICHARD BRIAN SOSEBEE, a/k/a "Dirty," JONATHAN STUBBS, CODY RYAN TODD, AND KEVIN SCOTT SOSEBEE, a/k/a "Sosa," and others known and unknown to the grand jury, each being a person employed by, and associated with the enterprise, that is, GFG, engaged in, and the activities of which affect interstate and foreign commerce, knowingly and willfully combined, conspired, confederated, and agreed together and with one another to violate the racketeering laws of the United States, that is: Section 1962(c) of Title 18, United States Code, that is, to conduct and participate, directly and indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of the GFG enterprise, through a pattern of racketeering activity consisting of multiple acts and threats involving:

Multiple offenses involving:

4. Distribution of controlled substances, including multiple grams of methamphetamine, cocaine, illegal prescription pills and marijuana, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and 846;

Multiple acts indictable under:

5. Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1512 and 1513, relating to tampering with a witness;
6. Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1956 and 1957, relating to money laundering;
7. Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343 relating to wire fraud; and

4. It was part of the conspiracy that each defendant agreed that a conspirator would commit at least two acts of racketeering activity in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise.

PURPOSES OF THE ENTERPRISE

5. The purposes of the Enterprise included but were not limited to the following:

1. Preserving and protecting the power of the Enterprise and its members and associates through murder, attempted murder, assaults with firearms, other acts of violence, and the threat of violence.
2. Enriching the members and associates of the Enterprise through, among other things, the distribution of narcotics, including methamphetamine, cocaine, illegal prescription pills and marijuana.
3. Promoting and enhancing the enterprise and its members and associates' activities.
4. Keeping members of the community and other GFG members in fear of the leaders, members, and associates through threats of violence and actual violence, thereby creating power and respect for GFG.
5. Providing financial support to GFG members, who were charged with, or in prison for, gang-related activities.
6. Providing contraband, such as drug money, illegal drugs and cell phones to incarcerated GFG members.
7. Furthering the enterprise through incarcerated GFG members ordering and facilitating illegal drug deals with GFG members and associates on the outside.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE ENTERPRISE

6. Among the manner and means employed by GFG members and associates in conducting and participating in the conduct of the affairs of the Enterprise were the following:

1. Members and associates of the GFG enterprise committed, and conspired to commit, acts of violence, including murder, attempted murder, robbery, kidnaping, maiming and assault, to protect and expand GFG's criminal operations.
2. Members and associates of GFG sold narcotics, including methamphetamine, cocaine, marijuana, and prescription pills.
3. Members and associates of GFG obtained, possessed, and used firearms to show power and gain respect.
4. Members and associates of GFG orchestrated and facilitated illegal drug deals while in prison, by using GFG members on the outside to conduct the actual deals and send the drug money earned to incarcerated GFG members.
5. GFG members were expected to get, and often got, GFG tattoos to show loyalty and affiliation.
6. Members and associates of GFG created, maintained, and distributed GFG literature and bylaws for members to memorize and to recite upon command.

7. Members distributed sham and misleading GFG literature to confuse and mislead law enforcement as to the true purpose of GFG.
8. GFG Bookkeepers kept lists of all members and assigned them a GFG identifying number.
9. Members and associates of GFG smuggled contraband into prisons to incarcerated GFG members and associates, such as drug money, illegal drugs, and cell phones.
10. Members and associates of GFG set up video conference calls for those incarcerated and those "at the table," to discuss gang business; incarcerated GFG members and associates used contraband cell phones to call in to the video conference. GFG members "at the table" vote on decisions affecting the entire gang.
11. GFG leaders who were incarcerated gave orders to those on the outside, who would carry out the orders and report back to the leaders.
12. Incarcerated members and associates of GFG would make money by perpetuating financial fraud schemes using contraband telephones. Utilizing contraband smuggled cell phones, incarcerated GFG members and associates called victims in Georgia, Alabama and in other states claiming to be local law enforcement. GFG members and associates told victims that they had missed jury duty and there was a warrant out for the victim's arrest. GFG members and associates told victims they could pay a fine to avoid arrest. GFG members and associates instructed the victims to obtain Green Dot cards and send the GFG members and associates the Green Dot card information. GFG members and associates would then work with other people on the outside to transfer the money from the Green Dot cards to them so the members and associates on the outside could obtain cash.

13. Members and associates committed money laundering by using Green Dot cards and Paypal to conceal the source of proceeds obtained through illegal activity.
14. Gang leadership maintained internal discipline by issuing orders, including, but not limited to an "SOS" or a "cover up." "SOS" stands for "Smash on Sight." An "SOS" is a standing order to assault GFG members and associates who violated gang rules. GFG members and associates who ignored an "SOS" could be subject to violent consequences themselves for failure to carry out an order. A "cover up" order can mean an order to cover up a gang tattoo.

STRUCTURE AND OPERATION OF THE ENTERPRISE

7. The structure of GFG included, but was not limited to, the following:
 1. The Ghost Face Gangsters are a criminal street/prison gang that formed as a whites-only gang in or about 2000 in the Cobb County, Georgia, Jail.
 2. The group was originally organized by seven founding members known as "Pillars" within the prison system. All GFG members can trace their "bloodline" directly back to one of the seven founding "Pillars:" JEFFREY ALAN BOURASSA, a/k/a "JB," a/k/a "Babyface" a/k/a "Kid;" DAVID GENE POWELL, a/k/a "Davo;" Joseph M. Propps, Jr. a/k/a "JP," all indicted herein, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury.
 3. Female leaders are termed a "First Lady." Those who have held the "First Lady" position have included, but are not limited to: Genevieve Waits, Kayli Brewer, Samantha Miller and Hailey Danielle Sizemore.
 4. Since its founding, GFG has expanded outside of the prison system and its members and associates are found throughout the Northern District of Georgia, and elsewhere.
 5. GFG has a detailed and uniform structure, in which members achieve various ranks and responsibilities within the enterprise. Ranks and titles include, but are not limited to, state-wide coordinator, state-wide bookkeeper, state-

- wide policy and procedures, state-wide security, state-wide violator, state-wide structure board, state-wide education coordinator, state-wide living coordinator, state-wide communications coordinator, state-wide investigator, state-wide enforcement coordinator, state-wide recruiter, state-wide planning and strategy, state-wide treasury, state-wide legal coordinator, state-wide meeting coordinator, and state-wide current event coordinator.
6. Within the prison system, GFG structure includes, but is not limited to, the Capo (leader), chief of security, chief enforcer, chief violator, treasurer, bookkeeper, educator, and investigator.
 7. GFG members recruit prospective members inside and outside of the prison system. New members are required to memorize gang literature and recite gang oaths upon demand. Prior to initiation into the gang, three GFG members physically beat the prospective member for 76 seconds, an act known as "3 for 76." Following the beat-in initiation, a GFG member sends the newly initiated GFG member's information to a state-wide bookkeeper, who would then assign the newly initiated GFG member a unique identifying number.
 8. GFG members use robust symbolism in their identification as members of the enterprise. GFG members wear green clothing and use the color green frequently in social media posts and communications.

9. The number 7 has an important role in GFG and is used for identification, communication, and organization. GFG was founded by 7 "Pillars," the letter "G" is the 7th letter of the alphabet, the gang uses a seven pointed star as an identifying symbol, and members use phrases such as "on my seven," and "seven love" when speaking with each other. When calling a meeting, GFG call it a "7." Members also use the numbers "767" and "76.7," in their communications with each other. "767" correlates, alphanumerically, to the letters "GFG" in the alphabet. GFG uses "76.7" to show that a member was "brought into" the gang by one of the Pillars. This number gives the members special status within the gang. GFG members are expected to recite "the seven words of faith" which are "I am fully prepared for all consequences."
10. GFG members commonly have tattoos using these various GFG symbols to show their loyalty and affiliation.
11. Members of GFG use a series of codes to communicate with one another, and evade law enforcement. Some of these codes are "7 6 12", which stands alphanumerically for the letters G-F-L, which represents "Ghost Face love," "6:20," which stands for "forever true," "16:61", which stands for

- affiliated forever and forever affiliated, "1919" stands for stay quiet, or secret silent, "13," which stands for "all crackers," representing GFG's status as a white gang.
12. Upon release from prison, GFG members are expected to maintain their role within the gang, and continue to commit criminal acts on behalf of the GFG enterprise.
 13. Incarcerated GFG members regularly communicate with members and associates outside of prison to facilitate drug transactions, fraud, money laundering, and other illegal activity using smuggled cell phones, letters, and social media.
